

IGCC Campus Alert

March 2007

In This Issue:

Funding Opportunities
Continuous Funding
Jobs and Internships
Conferences and Other Learning
Opportunities

Comments? Questions? We'd like to hear from you. Contact us by email at igcc-cp@ucsd.edu.

Forward this message to a friend.

FUNDING OPPORTUNITIES

Junior Scholar Research Grant Program: Paul A. Volcker Endowment

Due March 15, 2007

Available to doctoral students who have successfully defended their dissertation prospectus. Proposals judged on their proposal to shed light on important public administration questions, as well as scholarly and methodological rigor and promise for advancing practice and theory development.

Grants from $2000 to $3000. For more information:

<http://www.h-net.org/~pubadmin/newsletters/f06a.htm>

Fellowship Program: PERC

Due March 15, 2007 -- June 15, 2007 -- October 15, 2007

The Political Economy Research Center research fellows are graduate and law students with an interest in natural resources and the environment. They show potential for research and writing in these areas and preferably be working on a research paper, thesis or dissertation.

With a monthly stipend they spend three months with experts in the free market environmentalism movement and are required to complete a paper of publishable quality and give three seminars to outline, report on and summarize their research findings.

<http://www.perc.org/enviroprog/students/grad/apply.php>

Marjorie Kovler Research Fellowship

Due March 15, 2007

The fellowship is intended to support a scholar in the production of a substantial work in the area of foreign intelligence and the presidency or a related topic. The successful candidate will develop at least a portion of her or his work from original research in archival materials from the collections of the Kennedy Library located in Boston, Massachusetts.

<http://www.jfklibrary.org/>

Graduate Studentships and Scholarships: Oxford Centre for Islamic Studies

Due March 16, 2007

The University of Oxford Center for Islamic Studies invites applications from suitably qualified candidates for graduate studentships and scholarships. The awards include the Saif bin Mohammad Al-Nahyan Scholarship, the Easa Saleh Al-Gurg Scholarship and the Barclays Scholarship. Preference will be given to those applying to the faculties of modern history, social studies, anthropology, Oriental studies, theology or law.

<http://www.oxcis.ac.uk/visit/gs.htm>

American Philosophical Society - The John Hope Franklin Dissertation Fellowship

Due April 1, 2007

Fellowships support outstanding doctoral students at American universities who are conducting dissertation research. A special feature of these fellowships is the objective of helping remedy a serious shortage of faculty of color in the arts and sciences by supporting the doctoral projects of minority students of great promise.

For detailed information:

<http://www.amphilsoc.org/grants/johnhopefranklin.htm>

Grants: CDC Grants for Public Health Research Dissertation

Due April 10, 2007 -- August 10, 2007

Grant support designed to encourage doctoral candidates from a variety of academic disciplines to conduct research of interest to Center for Disease Control and Prevention with the hope of ultimately facilitating entry of promising new investigators into the field of public health research.

Upper amount: $35,000. For more information:

<http://www.cdc.gov/od/pgo/funding/CD07-002.htm>

Summer Institute on Peacebuilding and Conflict Resolution in Bolivia

Due April 15, 2007

The Alliance for Conflict Transformation in partnership with Nur University invites applications from English speaking professionals, graduate and upper-level undergraduate students for participation in this 4-week residential program. IPCR offers a stimulating integration of theory and practice.

For complete program description:

<http://conflicttransformation.org>

Lentz Fellowship in Peace and Conflict Resolution Research

Due April 16, 2007

The Center for International Studies at University of Missouri-St. Louis invites applications for a one-year residential post-doctoral or sabbatical fellowship. Dates August 20, 2007 - May 10, 2008.

Must have completed Ph.D. with preference given to graduates in peace studies and conflict resolution. Salary $23,400 for the academic year appointment, with research/travel allowance and university benefits.

For full information:

<http://www.cfis-umsl.com>

UC President's Dissertation Year Fellowship/Fletcher Jones Fellowships

Due May 15, 2007

Program designed to identify educationally or economically disadvantaged doctoral candidates or those whose research of career direction focuses on problems related to disadvantaged segments of society.

Must be U.S. citizen or permanent resident. For more information:

http://www.ogsr.ucsd.edu/fellowships/dissertation_fellowship.htm

Short Term Grants: Woodrow Wilson International Center for Scholars

Due June 1, 2007 -- September 1, 2007 -- December 1, 2007

Grants provided by East European Studies (EES) for one month to American scholars working on policy relevant projects on East Europe.

More information:

<http://www.wilsoncenter.org/index.cfm?>

Award: George Watt Memorial Essay

Due June 1, 2007

The Abraham Lincoln Brigade Archives (ALBA) announces the annual competition for the George Watt Memorial Essay prizes. ($500 to the best undergraduate student work; $500 to the best graduate student work.)

Prizes will be awarded for the best essay a about the Spanish Civil War, the global anti-fascist political or cultural struggles of the 1920s and 1930s or the lifetime histories and contributions of the Americans who fought in support of the Spanish Republic from 1936-1938.

<http://www.alba-valb.org/albaeduess.htm>

Fellowships: National Defense and Global Security

Due December 20, 2007

These fellowships provide the opportunity for accomplished scientists and engineers to participate in and contribute to the federal policymaking process while learning firsthand about the intersection of science and policy.

Fellowships are available to individuals who hold a doctoral-level degree in any physical, biological medical or social science, in any field of engineering ort any relevant interdisciplinary field; or who have a master's degree in engineering and at least three years of post-degree professional experience.

Annual stipends begin at $65,000 for the 2007-2008 fellowship year.

http://fellowships.aaas.org/02_Areas/02_index.shtml

Postdoctoral Research Fellowships

Due January 8, 2008

Each year the Mershon Center at Ohio State University hosts outstanding scholars with a variety of research interests, particularly the use of force and diplomacy; the ideas, identities and decisional processes that affect security; the institutions that manage violent conflict.

http://mershoncenter.osu.edu/grants/fellowships/post_foc.htm

Fellowships in National Security

Due January 16, 2008

The Olin fellows spend an academic year at the institute working on a project of their choosing. The fellowships are intended for talented scholars in security affairs. Preference is given to graduate students who have made progress on their dissertations and are likely to complete them during their fellowship, as well as recent Ph.D. recipients.

<http://www.wcfia.harvard.edu/olin.fellowshipinformation.index.htm>

Fellowship: Wellstone Fellowship for Social Justice

Due February 2, 2008

This program is designed to foster advancement of social justice through participation in healthcare advocacy work focusing on unique challenges facing communities of color. Through this fellowship, Families USA hopes to expand the pool of talented social justice advocates from underrepresented racial and ethnic minority groups.

Open to Graduate and Undergraduate students, Minority students, Ph.D./M.D./Other Professionals. Amount: $35,000. For all information:

<http://www.familiesusa.org/about/wellstone-fellowship.html>

JOBS AND INTERNSHIPS

Science News Writing Internship - Science magazine

Due April 1, 2007

Science magazine, founded in 1880 by Thomas Alva Edison, is published by the American Association for the Advancement of Science (AAAS). These prestigious internships are available to University Graduates or Seniors who are U.S. citizens and have an interest (and preferably experience) writing about science and should be prepared to report, research, write and edit under weekly deadlines.

<http://www.aaas.org/careercenter/internships/science.shtml>

Internships: Carter Center

Due June 15, 2007 -- October 15, 2007

The Carter Center's unique internship program is recognized both nationally and internationally and has special appeal for combining academic study with practical application and experience. Designed particularly for Graduate or Undergraduate students interested in three main areas of contemporary international and domestic issues:

- Prevention and resolution of conflict
- Control and eradication of disease
- Operations

<http://www.cartercenter.org/involved/internships/index.html>

Department of State 2007 Summer Clerical Program

The U.S. State Department is seeking enthusiastic, energetic self-starters to provide clerical support throughout the department. Opportunity to get first-hand experience in the field of foreign affairs. Students from all majors can make a real difference by helping build and keep positive relationships between the U.S. and the rest of the world.

http://careers.state.gov/student/apply/summer_clerical.html

CONTINUAL FUNDING

Internship: Song of the Whale (SOTW) Program

Due CONTINUOUS

This program by the International Fund for Animal Welfare has been in operation since 1987 providing a unique opportunity for students, scientists and conservationists to gain practical experience of fieldwork on a dedicated whale research vessel, working alongside the full-time SOTW team.

Prime requirement for interns is enthusiasm and interest in marine life and conservation. For more information:

<http://www.ifaw.org/ifaw/general/default.aspx?old=153927>

Student Research Participation at the FBI Counterterrorism/Forensic Science Research Unit

Due CONTINUOUS

This program provides opportunities for Graduate or Undergraduate students to participate advancement of forensic science in the FBI Laboratories at the FBI Academy in Quantico, Virginia.

Stipend is based on research area and academic classification. The program ranges from three months to a year. More information:

<http://www.orau.gov/orise/edu/FBI/fi-gugFSRU.htm>

Public Policy Research Proposals: March of Dimes Birth Defects Foundation

Due CONTINUOUS

Researchers with relevant research proposals may apply for funding. The Foundation seeks to fund the research of individual or organization/entities for projects related to public policy issues affecting health care for infants, children or pregnant women and will fund projects for amounts not to exceed $25,000.

http://www.marchofdimes.com/professionals/855_2103.asp

Dissertation Fellowship in Military History

Due CONTINUOUS

To encourage and support the production of dissertations in military history by qualified graduate students, the center offers up to four dissertation fellowships each academic year. Although the history of war on land is broadly defined in the fellowship program, the selection of winners gives preference to topics on the history of the U.S. Army.

<http://www.army.mil/cmh-pg/CMH/Fellowship.htm>

ExxonMobil Corporation

Due CONTINUOUS

ExxonMobil supports organizations that research significant domestic and foreign policy issues and promote informed public discussion on issues such as economics, the environment, and law and justice.

http://exxonmobil.com/Corporate/Citizenship/gcr_contributions_worldwide_givingguidelines.asp

Visiting Fellowship in Middle Eastern Economics

Due CONTINUOUS

The Saban Center for Middle East Policy at the Brookings Institution is accepting applications for a Visiting Fellow in Middle Eastern economic reform to join the Saban Center's Arab Democracy and Development Project for a period of six months to one year. The center especially encourages proposals for research on the relationship between economic reform and other changes in Arab society and politics, and the role of U.S. policy in regional economic transformation.

<http://www.brook.edu/admin/fellowships.htm>

CONFERENCES AND OTHER LEARNING OPPORTUNITIES

"Economics and Politics of Land Reform in India"

March 8, 2007 3:30 - 5:00 pm

Presented by Pranab Bardhan, UC Berkeley, as part of IICAS South Asian Studies Lecture Series. Location correction: IR/PS Dean's Conference Room (UCSD).

<http://iicas.ucsd.edu>

2007 Vespucci Summer Institute on Geographic Information Science

Due March 9, 2007

The IGERT Program at University of Buffalo invites applications from U.S. doctoral students for this prestigious gathering in Fiesole (near Florence) Italy during Week 1, June 10-15, 2007. Funding available to support participation.

Contact IGERT for details: <http://www.igert.org>

"Structure and Agency in the Transformation of India's Foreign Policy"

March 12, 2007 3:30 - 5:00 pm

Presented by Sumit Ganguly of Indiana University, as part of IICAS South Asian Studies Lecture Series. Location Social Sciences Bldg 104 (UCSD).

<http://iicas.ucsd.edu>

"Imminence and Proportionality: The U.S. and U.K. Response to Global Terrorism"

March 29, 2007 12:10 pm

Todd Landman, University of Essex in International Law Series. Location: California Western School of Law.

<http://iicas.ucsd.edu>

Opportunity for Dissertation Writers in Security Studies

Due April 13, 2007

The Triangle Institute for Security Studies (TISS) will hold its 8th Annual New Faces Conference September 7-8, 2007 in Chapel Hill, North Carolina to promote interdisciplinary scholarship in security studies.

A few promising advanced graduate students will be selected to speak at the conference, presenting their research in what is described as an off-Broadway preview of their job-talk.

<http://www.pubpol.duke.edu/centers/tiss/about/opportunitiesnf.php>

SEASSI 2007

June 18-August 10, 2007

The Southeast Asian Studies Summer Institute will convene their eight-week intensive language program on June 18th at University of Wisconsin - Madison.

<http://seassi.wisc.edu>

Cartographies of the Theological-Political

August 6-17, 2007

The Seminar in Experimental Critical Theory (SECT) is an intensive two-week summer program offered by the University of California Humanities Research Institute where distinguished instructors are brought together with faculty, graduate students, independent scholars and public intellectuals from the U.S. and the international community.

<http://www.uchri.org>

New "Culture and Theory" PhD Program at UCI

A New Interdisciplinary PhD Program at the University of California, Irvine in Culture and Theory provides a strong theoretical and critical approach to race, gender and sexuality studies. The Ph.D. Program in Culture and Theory will use a problem-oriented rather than a disciplinary approach to analyze issues of race, gender and sexuality in relation to diasporic, transnational, and postcolonial contexts.

<http://www.humanities.uci.edu/cultureandtheory>
