

IGCC Campus Alert May 2007

In This Issue:

Funding Opportunities
Continuing Funding
Jobs and Internships
Conferences/Other Learning Opportunities

Comments? Questions? We'd like to hear from you. Contact us by email at igcc-cp@ucsd.edu.

Forward this message to a friend.

FUNDING OPPORTUNITIES

Salaried Postdoctoral Research Associate in History of Science/Science Studies (The Program in Science, Technology and Environmental Policy) UCSD and Princeton University

Due: NOW

Postdoctoral fellow sought to examine the history of scientific assessments of the stability of the West Antarctic Ice Sheet and its role in sea level rise caused by global warming. Initial appointment for one year with renewal possibility. Position based primarily on UCSD campus but must be flexible for travel to Princeton for research as needed. Requires completed doctorate and open to all regardless of citizenship. More information:

[http://web.p\[rin\]ceton.edu/sites/dof/ApplicantsInfo.htm](http://web.p[rin]ceton.edu/sites/dof/ApplicantsInfo.htm)

International Fellowships: Ford Foundation

Due: Varies

The Ford Foundation International Fellowship Program provides opportunities for advanced study to exceptional individuals who will use this education to become leaders in their respective fields, furthering development in their own countries and greater economic and social justice worldwide. Fellows selected from countries in Asia, Africa, the Middle East, Latin American and Russia, where the Ford Foundation maintains overseas programs.

Applicants must demonstrate excellence in undergraduate studies, hold a Baccalaureate degree and have experience in community service or development-related activities. US nationals are not eligible although fellows may study in the United States. More information:

<http://www.fordfound.org/news/more/1122000ifp/index.cfm>

President's Dissertation Year and Fletcher Jones Fellowship

Due: May 9, 2007

One application for consideration for both of these respected awards targeted towards doctoral candidates who have overcome educational, social or economic barriers or who have supported and encouraged student diversity on campus or whose research or planned career direction focuses on problems related to disadvantaged segments of society. Dissertation Fellows receive a stipend of $18,000 and a research/travel allowance of $490. Fletcher Jones Fellows received a stipend of $21,150.

http://www.ogsr.ucsd.edu/fellowships/dissertation_fellowship.htm.

National Scholarship Programme of the Slovak Republic

Due: May 15, 2007 or November 15, 2007

The government of the Slovak Republic has established a scholarship program for the support of mobility of students. It is open to graduate students, teachers, researchers from many countries. Time spent at Slovak universities and funding amounts vary. More information:

<http://www.scholarships.sk/0003.nsp?lang=en>

Research Grant: Matsushita International Foundation

Due: May 18, 2007

Objective is to contribute to the development of world culture and peace by promoting mutual understanding between Japan and other countries and by development personnel capable of promoting this understanding. Unrestricted citizenship or residency, grant period 1 year.

<http://panasonic.co.jp/ccd/mif-e.htm#ResearchGrants>

Science Fellows Program: California Sea Grant College

Due: June 1, 2007

The aim of this program is to bring together junior scientists with CALFED Program agency scientists and senior research mentors in collaborative data analysis and research projects relevant to ecosystem management and water supply reliability.

Postdoctoral fellows receive $45,000/year stipend and graduate fellows $25,000/year, both for a maximum duration of three years. Information, application:

<http://www.csgc.ucsd.edu/EDUCATION/SgEducationIndx.html>

Short Term Grants: Woodrow Wilson International Center for Scholars

Due: June 1, 2007 or September 1, 2007 or December 1, 2007

Grants provided by East European Studies (EES) for one month to American scholars working on policy relevant projects on East Europe. More information:

<http://www.wilsoncenter.org/index.cfm?>

Mark Mills Award: American Nuclear Society

Due: June 1, 2007

Award presented to the graduate student author who submits the best original technical paper contributing to the advancement of science and engineering related to the atomic nucleus. Must demonstrate originality and ingenuity and should be in a form suitable for publication.

<http://www.ans.org/honors/>

Award: George Watt Memorial Essay

Due: June 1, 2007

The Abraham Lincoln Brigade Archives (ALBA) announces the annual competition for the George Watt Memorial Essay prizes. ($500 to the best undergraduate student work; $500 to the best graduate student work.)

Prizes will be awarded for the best essay about the Spanish Civil War, the global anti-fascist political or cultural struggles of the 1920s and 1930s or the lifetime histories and contributions of the Americans who fought in support of the Spanish Republic from 1936-1938. Details:

<http://www.alba-valb.org/albaeduess.htm>

Junior Faculty Grant: International Security and Foreign Policy Program

Due: June 29, 2007

The Smith Richardson Foundation announces its annual grant competition to support junior faculty research on American foreign policy, international relations, international security, military policy and diplomatic and military history. Award: $60,000.

http://www.srf.org/grants/JF_Domestic_Description.php

Domestic Public Policy Research Fellowship Program

Due: June 29, 2007

The Smith Richardson Foundation seeks to support the work of the next generation of public policy researchers and analysts by awarding $60,000 grants to Ph Ds, Mds or other professionals interested in conducting research and writing on domestic public policy issues. Grants are expected to produce a book or article suitable for publication in a peer-reviewed journal.

http://www.srf.org/grants/Domestic_Public_Policy_Febblowship.php

Junior Research Fellowships: American Institute of Indian Studies

Due: July 1, 2007

AIS is a cooperative, non-profit organization of 59 American colleges and universities that supports the advancement of knowledge and understanding of India, its people and its culture. These fellowships bring scholars to India to assist in their study of all aspects of Indian history, culture and contemporary life.

<http://www.indianstudies.org/fellow.htm>

US Educational Foundation in India, Fulbright Fellowships

Due: July 16, 2007

These fellowships are offered to responsible Indian citizens who can contribute to a full and fair picture of the culture and civilization of India, thereby helping to promote understanding and friendship between the people of the US and India. Must be graduate student, Ph D, MD or other professional. Complete information:

<http://www.fulbright-india.org/ForIndianNationalsForStudentsDoctoralandProfessionalResearchFellowships.aspx>

Grants: CDC Grants for Public Health Research Dissertation

Due: August 10, 2007

Grant support designed to encourage doctoral candidates from a variety of academic disciplines to conduct research of interest to Center for Disease Control and Prevention with the hope of ultimately facilitating entry of promising new investigators into the field of public health research.

Upper amount: $35,000. For more information:

<http://www.cdc.gov/od/pgo/funding/CD07-002.htm>

Dissertation Grants: American Educational Research Association

Due: August 31, 2007 or January 4, 2008 or February 22, 2008

With support from the National Science Foundation and the Institute of Education Sciences, the AERA's grant program goals are to stimulate research on US Education policy and practice issues. Must be advanced doctoral students. Amount: To $15,000.

http://www.aera.net/grantsprogram/res_training/diss_grants/DGFLy.html

Hazel D. Cole Fellowship in Jewish Studies

Due: November 15, 2007

The Jewish Studies Program at University of Washington welcomes applicants from all American and foreign universities for fellowships to be used for doctoral or postdoctoral research in any field of Jewish studies from Yiddish to Israel. Amount: $30,000

<http://jsis.washington.edu/jewish/fellowships.shtml>

Fellowships: National Defense and Global Security

Due: December 20, 2007

Fellowships that provide the opportunity for accomplished scientists and engineers to participate in and contribute to the federal policymaking process while learning firsthand about the intersection of science and policy.

Fellowships available to the doctoral-level degreed in any physical, biological medical or social science, in any field of engineering or any relevant interdisciplinary field; or those with a master's degree in engineering and at least three years of post-degree professional experience.

Annual stipends begin at $65,000 for the 2007-2008 fellowship year. Complete information:

http://fellowships.aas.org/02_Areas/02_index.shtml

Award: Sean W. Dever Memorial Prize

Due: December 31, 2007

The W.F. Abright Institute of Archaeological Research in Jerusalem will present $500 prize for the best published article or paper presented at a conference by a Ph D candidate in Syro-Palestinian or biblical archaeology. Details:

http://www.aiar.org/fellowships_prize.html

Postdoctoral Research Fellowships

Due: January 8, 2008

Each year the Mershon Center at Ohio State University hosts outstanding scholars with a variety of research interests, particularly the use of force and diplomacy; the ideas, identities and decisional processes that affect security; the institutions that manage violent conflict. Details:

http://mershoncenter.osu.edu/grants/fellowships/post_foc.htm

Fellowships in National Security

Due: January 16, 2008

The Olin fellows spend an academic year at the institute working on a project of their choosing. The fellowships are intended for talented scholars in security affairs. Preference is given to graduate students who have made progress on their dissertations and are likely to complete them during their fellowship, as well as recent Ph.D. recipients. More information:

<http://www.wcfia.harvard.edu/olin.fellowshipinformation.index.htm>

Wellstone Fellowship for Social Justice

Due: February 2, 2008

This program is designed to foster advancement of social justice through participation in healthcare advocacy work focusing on unique challenges facing communities of color. Through this fellowship, Families USA hopes to expand the pool of talented social justice advocates from underrepresented racial and ethnic minority groups.

Open to Graduate and Undergraduate students, Minority students, Ph.D./M.D./Other Professionals. Amount: $35,000. For all information:

<http://www.familiesusa.org/about/wellstone-fellowship.html>

JOBS AND INTERNSHIPS

Internships: Carter Center

Due June 15, 2007 or October 15, 2007

The Carter Center's unique internship program is recognized both nationally and internationally and has special appeal for combining academic study with practical application and experience. Designed particularly for Graduate or Undergraduate students interested in three main areas of contemporary international and domestic issues:

- Prevention and resolution of conflict
- Control and eradication of disease
- Operations

<http://www.cartercenter.org/involved/internships/index.html>

Scholarship Intern Program: Mote Marine Laboratory

Due: July 1, 2007 or November 1, 2007 or February 1, 2008

An endowment in honor of late MML volunteer Louis S. Gilbert provides a limited number of scholarships to bright deserving college students for internships in marine and environmental studies in Sarasota, FL. Funded interns will complete a research paper, give a seminar and provide a final report summarizing their training and accomplishments.

Award includes stipend for living expenses and research supplies for 8 to 16-week internship.

<http://www.mote.org/index.php?src=gendocs&link=College%20Intern%20Scholarship%20Program&category=Education>

Student Internships: The Independent Institute

Due: CONTINUOUS

Students gain valuable experience at the Independent Institute in Oakland, California by writing policy-related newspaper op-eds or magazine articles and by giving radio interviews related to their research. Amount: $1,400. Information:

<http://www.independent.org/students/garvey/>

Department of State 2007 Summer Clerical Program

The U.S. State Department is seeking enthusiastic, energetic self-starters to provide clerical support throughout the department. Opportunity to get first-hand experience in the field of foreign affairs. Students from all majors can make a real difference by helping build and keep positive relationships between the U.S. and the rest of the world. Details:

http://careers.state.gov/student/apply/summer_clerical.html

CONTINUING FUNDING

Coordinated Research Activities: International Atomic Energy Agency

Due: CONTINUOUS

Research proposals on the application of atomic energy for peaceful uses throughout the world are welcomed from graduate students, Ph Ds, MDs or other professionals from any member state of IAEA. Amount: $5,000. Information:

<http://www-crp.iaea.org/>

Student Research Participation at the FBI Counterterrorism/Forensic Science Research Unit

Due: CONTINUOUS

This program provides opportunities for Graduate or Undergraduate students to participate advancement of forensic science in the FBI Laboratories at the FBI Academy in Quantico, Virginia.

Stipend is based on research area and academic classification. The program ranges from three months to a year. More information:

<http://www.orau.gov/orise/edu/FBI/fi-gugFSRU.htm>

Public Policy Research Proposals: March of Dimes Birth Defects Foundation

Due: CONTINUOUS

Researchers with relevant research proposals may apply for funding. The Foundation seeks to fund the research of individual or organization/entities for projects related to public policy issues affecting health care for infants, children or pregnant women and will fund projects for amounts not to exceed $25,000.

http://www.marchofdimes.com/professionals/855_2103.asp

Dissertation Fellowship in Military History

Due: CONTINUOUS

To encourage and support the production of dissertations in military history by qualified graduate students, the center offers up to four dissertation fellowships each academic year. Although the history of war on land is broadly defined in the fellowship program, the selection of winners gives preference to topics on the history of the U.S. Army. Information:

<http://www.army.mil/cmh-pg/CMH/Fellowship.htm>

ExxonMobil Corporation

Due: CONTINUOUS

ExxonMobil supports organizations that research significant domestic and foreign policy issues and promote informed public discussion on issues such as economics, the environment, and law and justice. Information:

http://exxonmobil.com/Corporate/Citizenship/gcr_contributions_worldwide_givingguidelines.asp

Visiting Fellowship in Middle Eastern Economics

Due: CONTINUOUS

The Saban Center for Middle East Policy at the Brookings Institution is accepting applications for a Visiting Fellow in Middle Eastern economic reform to join the Saban Center's Arab Democracy and Development Project for a period of six months to one year. The center especially encourages proposals for research on the relationship between economic reform and other changes in Arab society and politics, and the role of U.S. policy in regional economic transformation. Details:

<http://www.brook.edu/admin/fellowships.htm>

CONFERENCES/OTHER LEARNING OPPORTUNITIES

National Preservation Conference Scholarship

Due: June 1, 2007

The National Trust for Historic Preservation encourages culturally diverse applicants from communities of varied sizes. The program provides financial assistance to undergraduates, graduates or professionals whose attendance at the conference will benefit their community and strengthen their commitment to historic preservation.

<http://www.nthpconference.org/ConUpdates/#scholarships>

SEASSI 2007

June 18-August 10, 2007

The Southeast Asian Studies Summer Institute will convene their eight-week intensive language program on June 18th at University of Wisconsin - Madison. Details:

<http://seassi.wisc.edu>

Cartographies of the Theological-Political

August 6-17, 2007

The Seminar in Experimental Critical Theory (SECT) is an intensive two-week summer program offered by the University of California Humanities Research Institute where distinguished instructors are brought together with faculty, graduate students, independent scholars and public intellectuals from the U.S. and the international community.

Information:

<http://www.uchri.org>

New "Culture and Theory" PhD Program at UCI

A New Interdisciplinary PhD Program at the University of California, Irvine in Culture and Theory provides a strong theoretical and critical approach to race, gender and sexuality studies. The Ph.D. Program in Culture and Theory will use a problem-oriented rather than a disciplinary approach to analyze issues of race, gender and sexuality in relation to diasporic, transnational, and postcolonial contexts. Detailed information:

<http://www.humanities.uci.edu/cultureandtheory>
