

Sponsored by the IGCC project on the Study of Innovation and Technology in China (SITC), the 21st Century China Program, and China Focus.

China's National Security Policymaking Capacity

PUBLIC TALK

Dr. David M. Finkelstein

Vice President, Center for Naval Analyses

Wednesday, February 1

5:00 – 6:00 pm

Room 3202, IR/PS Robinson Complex

UC San Diego

David M. FINKELSTEIN is Vice President of the Center for Naval Analyses and Director of CNA China Studies, a line research Division of CNA. With over a dozen full time analysts, CNA China Studies is one of the nation's largest analytic groups focused on security Chinese affairs. He received his Ph.D. in Chinese history from Princeton University and studied Mandarin at Nankai University in Tianjin. A retired US Army regular officer, he also held significant positions as a U.S. Army China Foreign Area Officer serving the Secretary of Defense as Assistant Defense Intelligence Officer for East Asia and the Pacific and on the Joint Staff as Director for Asian Studies (J-8, SAGD) for the Chairmen, JCS. Dr. Finkelstein writes extensively on a wide range of Chinese issues and is an internationally recognized specialist on Chinese military and security affairs.

Free and open to the public. For questions or to RSVP, contact Heidi Serochi hserochi@ucsd.edu; 858-534-8602.