China’s Defense and Dual-Use Science, Technology, and Industrial Base
La Jolla, California, July 1-2, 2010

Agenda

All conference events will be held at the Village at Torrey Pines on the 15th Floor, Room A unless otherwise noted.

June 30, 2010

6.30pm: Opening Reception and Dinner

Day One: July 1, 2010

Introduction: 8.30am-8.45am: Welcome (Tai Ming Cheung, Bates Gill)

Session One, 8.45am-10.15am: Evaluating the Performance and Catching Up of the Chinese Defense Economy: What Critical Factors Should We Be Examining? Evidence From the Field and Methodological Perspectives (Chair: Jonathan Pollack)

Session Two, 10.30am-1.30pm: Assessing the Performance and Innovation Dynamics of the Different Sectors of the Chinese Defense Economy? (Chair: Tai Ming Cheung)

Lunch and Break: 1.30pm-4.30pm

Session Three, 4.30pm-6.00pm: How Much Progress Has the Chinese Defense Economy Made Towards Civil-Military Integration and Opening Up to the Non-State Sector? (Chair: James Mulvenon)

Reception and Dinner: 7.00 pm at PEARL RESTAURANT (shuttle will depart from Pangea parking structure at 6.20 pm)

Day Two: July 2, 2010

Session Four, 8.30am-10.30am: What is the Nature of the Chinese Defense Economy’s Linkages with the Global Economy? (Chair: Maggie Marcum)

Session Five, 10.45am-12.45pm: How Does China’s Defense Economy Compare with Other Leading and Asian Defense Industrial Powers? (Chair: Tom Mahnken)

Lunch: 12.45pm-2.00pm

Session Six, 2.00pm-4.00pm: What Trends Can We Expect in the Development of the Chinese Defense Economy in the Next 5-10 Years? (Chair: Bates Gill)
Session Seven, 4.15pm-5.00pm: Wrap-Up and Issues for Examination in the 2011 Conference (Chair: Tai Ming Cheung)

Associated Paper Titles

12. Pollpeter, Kevin. “China’s Space Industry in 2009: A Year in Review aka It’s the Political Economy, Stupid aka It Really is Rocket Science.”

