2012 IGCC Annual Conference on China’s Defense Science, Technology, and Industrial Base
La Jolla, California
July 19-20, 2012

This is the third IGCC annual conference on China’s defense economy. One of the principal goals of this year’s conference is to undertake a detailed survey of the state of the defense economy with particular emphasis on industrial and economic performance, current and long-term development plans, and measuring innovation activities at the sectoral level.
